

LUXEMBOURG
YOUTH HOSTELS
↓.lu

Thick forests, bizarre rock formations and a medieval castle make Larochette the perfect getaway for anyone in need of a breath of fresh air. The town is particularly famous for its castle, majestically overlooking the valley of the White Ernz. Its historic, picturesque market place, narrow alleyways and archaic buildings turn Larochette into a town where time stands still.

The youth hostel

The modern youth hostel is situated in a large park with small bungalows, playgrounds and rest areas – not far from the picturesque, historical centre of Larochette and perfect to explore the beautiful Mullerthal region. Double rooms, bungalows and a chalet make the youth hostel ideal for individual guests as well as families, hikers, mountain bikers and motorcyclists. Furthermore, we offer a wide range of diverse packages and activities with no age restrictions for guests!

Recreation

Be it a relaxing stroll through the romantic alleys of Larochette's town centre or a more demanding hike along the 'Mullerthal Trail', Larochette and its stunning surroundings have something for everyone. The town is connected to numerous hiking and mountain bike trails, allowing for a wide range of excursions into the beautiful environments. Furthermore, a neo-Romanesque church, the roman camp of Aalburg and an exhibition about the local textile industry contribute to the region's diverse cultural appeal.

Getting there

By car the town of Larochette is located a 30 minute drive away from Luxembourg City. A public bus connects Larochette with the capital, Mersch, Diekirch and Echternach. The bus stop 'Leedebach' is located within a few minutes walking distance from the youth hostel. Bus schedules can be found on the website of Luxembourg's mobility centre: www.mobiliteit.lu. Free parking spaces for buses, cars and motorcycles are available on the premises of the youth hostel.
