Experience the beauty and calm of the Upper Sure Nature Reserve! The picturesque scenery is famous for its densely wooded valleys and rugged, hilly landscape surrounding Luxembourg's largest lake. The small village of Lultzhausen is located right on the shores of this lake and features a beautiful beach and fantastic promenades. When you're in a unique location such as Lultzhausen, your holiday starts right on your doorstep!

The youth hostel

Surrounded by the lake and its untouched nature, relaxation and calm are guaranteed in this truly unique location. Our guests are also offered a wide selection of hiking and mountain biking trails. Due to the high amount of conference and assembly rooms, it is also ideal for workshops and seminars. Or why not combine the two and round off your seminar with aquatic sports, a cultural visit, or a team building activity? The ground floors of all buildings and public spaces are wheelchair accessible, ensuring that guests of any age group feel welcome!

Recreation

Due to its unique location, Lultzhausen is the ideal starting point for excursions into the stunning surroundings and to nearby cultural attractions. Hikers and mountain bikers can profit from the numerous – and partially demanding – trails through the reserve. Furthermore, the lake offers a wide range of opportunities for aquatic sports such as diving, canoeing and swimming. The medieval town of Esch-sur-Sûre with its castle, textile mill and exhibition on the nature reserve is just a few kilometres away.

Getting there

Lultzhausen is located in the heart of the Ardennes, just 20 km from the Belgian border. On weekdays, public buses connect Lultzhausen (bus stop 'Bif. Lultzhausen') to the cities of Ettelbruck and Wiltz, from where on a direct train connects them to the capital. Bus schedules can be found on the website of Luxembourg's mobility centre: www.mobiliteit.lu. A public parking space is available nearby the youth hostel at a charge.
