The youth hostel

The youth hostel is located on the shore of the lake of Echternach and offers lots of adventures including sports, games and fun at the indoor climbing wall and the fully equipped sports hall. 118 beds are disposed in 29 modern rooms with two to six beds and ensuite bathrooms. Group activities and children's birthdays are available on request. Two conference rooms and a small meeting facility are at the groups' disposal. To complete the offer, the animation team organises teambuilding as well as incentive programmes. The in-house restaurant 'Melting Pot' serves a daily menu as well as fresh and regional specialties. When the sun shines, why not enjoy the terrace with its panoramic view of the lake and the outdoor trampoline park. The whole youth hostel is wheelchair accessible.

Leisure

The youth hostel Echternach has a 14 m high indoor climbing wall with a small boulder area, as well as a fully equipped sports hall at the guests' disposal throughout the year. The outdoor trampoline park of the youth hostel provides lots of fun for the children between April and September. Echternach, the oldest town of Luxembourg is located on the shores of the Sûre and is well-known for its Dancing Procession to the grave of Saint Willibrord on Whit Tuesday. This event was recognised in 2010 by the UNESCO as intangible heritage. Echternach also boasts numerous monuments, historical buildings and museums. The romantic alleys in the city centre provide a great opportunity for a relaxing stroll or the tasting of local specialties on one of the many terraces. But nature lovers, hiking enthusiasts and mountain bike fans will also get their money's worth in this region. The youth hostel is located 2 km from the city centre and is thus the perfect starting point for all sorts of tours. More information about the activities: www.mullerthal.lu
